No. 45.

Removal of certain restrictions in regard to the grant of copies in the Central Records.

Mr. C. Krishnamurthi, Law Association, Bangalore.

Summary of Representation.

When applications for copies are filed in the Central Records, information as to the date of disposal and the serial number are always insisted upon. This is not always practicable and may not be insisted upon.

Not keep pending.

Under the Disposal number system records are arranged according to the date of disposal. Information as to the date of disposal will therefore facilitate getting at the record. Rules do not however prescribe that the party who applies for ~~portion of~~ copies should give these information which often he may not be in possession of. Civil Digest page 117 prescribes that the Officials of the Court should note the date on the application. The practice complained against is in vogue does not appear to be authorised and instructions to that effect may perhaps issue through the Chief Court.

Summary of Discussion.—When applications for copies are filed in the Central Records, information as to the date of disposal and the serial number is always insisted upon. This is not always practicable and may not be insisted upon.

The member said that the subject would not be discussed if it were to be referred to the Chief Court, whereupon the Dewan replied that the Chief Court would be consulted.

Registers of Suits which is a permanent record, devotes a page for each Suit, wherein all the necessary particulars are entered. Date of disposal & Serial number can therefore be obtained from those registers, which are kept in the Court & not sent to the Central Records. Even if the application relates to execution proceedings, the same page, on the reverse, has certain details connected with the execution in any particular suit. The attendar proposed will therefore not answer the purpose except in Miscellaneous Cases & may be approved
